

U.S. NAVAL INTELLIGENCE SCHOOL

U. S. NAVAL RECEIVING STATION
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

In reply refer to

NC748/HHC:rw

P11-3

Ser

5 AUG 1957

Director of Training
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

ONI DECLASSIFICATION/RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS ON FILE

Gentlemen:

25X1A It is requested that the Central Intelligence Agency provide a guest lecturer to address the students of the postgraduate course at the Naval Intelligence School on the subject of "The Central Intelligence Agency". A lecture on this subject has been scheduled as one of eight lectures in a course entitled: "Introduction to U. S. Organizations for National Security". It is proposed that the lecture be of fifty minutes duration, and cover in general terms the organization and functions of the CIA. All persons who will attend the lecture are cleared for classified material up to and including Secret. Time of presentation of this lecture has been scheduled for 9:30 A.M., Wednesday, 11 September 1957.

25X1A Last year [redacted] of your Agency, presented an excellent lecture on this subject. It would be appreciated if the services of [redacted] could again be provided.

If this request meets with your approval, Lieutenant Commander H. H. Calhoun, U.S.N., of the Naval Intelligence School Staff, is designated as the officer responsible for detailed arrangements. He may be contacted on Code 145, Extension 469.

R. L. CRAIG

Commander, U. S. Navy
Assistant Director
By direction of the Director